A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Chapter 11 of Title 15 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to juvenile proceedings, so as to update certain provisions relating to juvenile proceedings; to change certain provisions relating to disposition of a deprived child; to change certain provisions regarding reunification efforts; to change certain provisions regarding child placement following termination orders; to provide for related matters; to provide an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Chapter 11 of Title 15 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to juvenile proceedings, is amended by striking paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of Code Section 15-11-55, relating to disposition of deprived child, and inserting in its place the following:

"(2) Subject to conditions and limitations as the court prescribes, transfer temporary legal custody to any of the persons or entities described in this paragraph. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such conditions and limitations shall include a provision that the court shall approve or direct the retransfer of the physical custody of the child back to the parents, guardian, or other custodian either upon the occurrence of specified circumstances or in the discretion of the court. Any such retransfer of physical custody may be made subject to such further conditions and limitations as the court prescribes, including supervision for the protection of the child. The persons or entities to whom or which temporary legal custody may be transferred shall include the following:

(A) Any individual including a putative father who, after study by the probation officer or other person or agency designated by the court, is found by the court to be qualified to receive and care for the child;

(B) An agency or other private organization licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child;

(C) Any public agency authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child; or

(D) An individual in another state with or without supervision by an appropriate officer under Code Section 15-11-89.

~~Except for dispositions pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of Code Section 15-11-66 and Code Section 15-11-67, before transferring~~ In deprivation cases based on a petition brought by the Department of Human Resources, before a transfer of temporary legal custody in an order of disposition under this paragraph a reasonably diligent search for a parent or relative of the child or for other persons who have demonstrated an ongoing commitment to the child shall be conducted by the court and the Department of Human Resources. Such search shall be completed within 90 days from the date on which the child was removed from the home, the results of such search documented in writing and filed with the court at the time of the first review. During such 90 day period, the child may be placed in the temporary legal custody of the Department of Human Resources or any other appropriate entity or person; or"

SECTION 2.

Said chapter is further amended by striking subsection (p) of Code Section 15-11-58, relating to reunification efforts, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(p) In advance of each review or hearing to be held with respect to a child pursuant to this Code section, the court shall provide written notice or shall direct that a party shall provide written notice of such review or hearing, including their right to be heard at such review or hearing, to the custodian of the child, to the foster parents of the child, and to any preadoptive parents or relatives providing care for the child, ~~consistent with the form and timing of notice~~ on or about the time that notice is required to be provided to parties; provided, however, that this provision shall not be construed to require a custodian, foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the child to be made a party to the hearing solely on the basis of such notice and opportunity to be heard. At each such hearing the court in its discretion, based upon the evidence, may enter an order accepting or rejecting any report of the Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources, ordering an additional evaluation, appointing a guardian ad litem, or undertaking such other review as it deems necessary and appropriate to determine the disposition that is in the child's best interest. The court's order may incorporate all or part of the report of the Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources. In its order the court shall include findings of fact which reflect the court's consideration, in accordance with subsection (a) of Code Section 15-11-56, of the oral and written ~~testimony~~ information offered by the parents, the custodian of the child, the foster parents of the child, any preadoptive parents or relatives providing care for the child who are required to be provided with notice and a right to be heard in any review or hearing to

1 be held with respect to the child, and the Division of Family and Children Services of the
2 Department of Human Resources. A disposition may be made under the terms of this Code
3 section only if the court finds that such disposition is in the best interest of the child."

4 SECTION 3.

5 Said chapter is further amended by striking paragraph (3) of subsection (a) of Code Section
6 15-11-103, relating to placement of child following termination order, and inserting in lieu
7 thereof the following:

8 "(3) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection,
9 the court may commit the child to a suitable individual ~~on the condition that the person~~
10 ~~becomes~~ as the guardian of the person of the child pursuant to the court's authority under
11 Code Section 15-11-30.1, if the court determines such placement is the most appropriate
12 for and in the best interest of the child."

13 SECTION 4.

14 This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2005.

15 SECTION 5.

16 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
